Is prepared to Prove the following Tests in any Court of Law in London, England, and he respectfully requests Medicine Vendors and the Public to assist the cause of Truth and Right, against a Falsehood and Fraud.

A BASE FRAUD is being perpetrated by the Advertiser of Dr. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE in the Newspaper Press of India and the Colonies, the nature of which may be guessed from the fact that the originators of these Advertisements

DO NOT, AND DARE NOT
insert them in the Papers Published in the United Kingdom, neither may the Spurious Article, sought to be foisted upon the Public abroad, BE SOLD in the British Isles.

PHOSPHODYNE was Discovered and so

named by Dr. R. D. LALOR in the year 1862.
The Title and Prospectus was duly Entered at Stationers' Hall, London, in the year 1864.
This Title, Prospectus, and Four of Dr. LALOR'S Testimonials, the dates of which have been fraudulently altered from 1865, 1866, and 1867, as in the Original Letter, to 1870, have been basely fished by the Parties Advertising the False Phosphodyne. Copies of Original Letters, with Prospectus, sent post free. The Genuine "Phosphodyne" bears the Christiana
and Surname, with Address, as above; also the Registered Trade Mark, "PHOSPHODYNE," to copy which is felony.

Appointed Agents for Dr. Lalor's

Phosphodyne in India and China—

Intimations.

Dysentery, Cholera, Fever,
Ague, Coughs, Colds, &c.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE

(Ex Army Med. Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P.
Wood stated that Dr. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne,
that the story of the Defendant, Freeman,
being the Inventor was deliberately untrue;
which he regretted had been sworn to.
Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than
Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 15, 1884.
The public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions,
and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours, and in any quantity. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—
diphtheria, fever, croup, ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhea, and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cures short attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations
and spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, cancer, toothache, meningitis, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell commended
it to the College of Physicians and J. T.
Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne—
See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay—"Chlorodyne
is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1863) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered,
the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.
—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of stocking it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal,
August 1, 1869, which states that Dr.
J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

Caution.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the testimony accompanies each bottle.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelago and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resume in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which through asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1879, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and entertaining Review. It is a sixty-page, bi-monthly, repository of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address: China Review, Hongkong—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

Trübner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:—"This is the title of a publication, the number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which would be a great loss to the world of letters. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social development, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's Shi King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connection with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style, and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, it carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that the 'Notes and Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to ensure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum, delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and useful footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in tone—in almost limitless. It is on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials, Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription orders for either of the above may be sent to
GEO. MURRAY BAIN,
China Mail Office.

The latest news from England is that "an official announcement has been made up to the present; but it is probable that it will be transferred from the Straits, and the Daily Press today tells us that the successor to Sir William Robinson has not yet been named." We believe we are right in stating that Mr. William Robinson, C.M.G., the Governor of the Bahamas for the last five years, is to be the future Governor of the Straits Settlements. He is an old servant of the Colonial Office, having entered as clerk to the Secretary of State, 1st January, 1854, filled the office of private Secretary to Mr. Horan Marivale, Lord Blackford, Sir Hon. Edward Cardwell, in succession. He represented the Colonial Office on the East African Slave Trade Commission 1872; was one of the Colonial Commissioners for the Vienna Universal Exhibition of 1873, Special Commissioner for the Crown Colonies; and Superintendent of the Colonial Court of Appeal. He was also one of the able and ablest reports compiled for the Royal Commission upon the eleven British Colonies represented there with particular reference to their produce. Mr. Robinson was a member of the Committee which considered some years ago the idea of a Colonial Museum in London. He was appointed Lieutenant Governor of the Bahamas Islands, Oct. 1874, and Governor 1875, succeeding then our present Governor, Mr. Hennessy, when the latter went to Barbados. He leaves a salary of £2200—a population of 33,102, a revenue and expenditure of £35,777 and £39,397 respectively, imports and exports of £163,689 and £106,836 respectively—to take up a salary of £23,532, close on £5,000, a population of 807,961, with revenue and expenditure of £253,544 and £328,130, respectively, and exports and imports representing £70,137,474. He leaves one of the most serene, genial and through a great part of the year delightful climate in the world, to labour in a tropical climate with no variety of seasons and certainly not the best place in the world to work in judging from most of the European residents.

The following items are taken from the Calcutta Evening Mail of February 14th:—The German Government will establish penal colonies in the South Sea Islands. A correspondent of the Standard asserts that Germany does not want Holland, but Poland, which would afford a favourable outlet for her surplus population.

The Japan Gazette learns on sufficiently good authority that the consular passed on Chang How and consequent degradation of degree is a merely formal matter, and although Chang How, as the possible or probable "coming man" in China, has many enemies, the whole transaction was a farce agreed on and according to ancient custom. The next step, says our contemporary, will be an edict restoring his rank and honours. The Gazette is also said that the Russo-Chinese alliance stands as the treaty made by Chang How will be ratified by the Empress; also that Li improves the treaty to this extent, and insisted in its necessity as against Japan.

The following notes referring to our new Colonial Chaplain, are from the Waste Parish Magazine, a copy of which has been kindly placed at our disposal:—

"In the year that is beginning, we shall feel the loss of the Rev. W. Jennings, who has worked amongst us for nearly four years. He is about to start for Hongkong, where he has been appointed to the post of Colonial Chaplain, and where we have no doubt he will make himself as popular by his kindly interest in those amongst whom he labours, as he has made himself in Waste. We wish him God-speed on his journey and in his new and distant home."

The same magazine contains an account of the Christmas parties of the congregation. At the congregational tea on the 26th of December, we read that the interval between the parts was occupied by a very interesting incident, three presentations being made to the Rev. W. Jennings, who was his approaching marriage and departure for Hongkong. The subject was introduced by the Rev. J. H. Carter, who spoke warmly of his own regret in losing Mr. Jennings from the parish, and of the loss he would be to the people generally, by all of whom he had made himself much respected and loved. The first presentation was made by Mr. Fullagar in a humorous speech which elicited great applause. He handed to Mr. Jennings a purse containing £75 10s, collected from members of St. Luke's congregation. Mr. Cook then presented a large Bible from the Sunday School Teachers, and Mr. Williams a gold pen, one from the members of the Institute. In both these institutions Mr. Jennings has taken much interest and done much through work among the young men in the parish, by whom he is much appreciated, and will be sincerely regretted. Mr. Jennings, in giving his final four years' leave, in his last sermon, was held, and spoke of his four years at Waste, his only Curacy, as among the happiest of his life, adding his testimony to that of Mr. Carter as to the good fellowship and unity in work which had always prevailed between them.

The Foodborne people are unhappy, and as we read this lamentation we feel how much Hongkong has to be thankful for in this pleasant healthy braising weather: the Edwards grows thuy!

Rain! rain!—nothing but rain, and native scientific weather wisecracks say that it is to continue for 100 days. Yesterday was the Feast of Lanterns, and a sorry time for the poor children of Han. To-day Juniper Fluvius shows no sign of relenting, notwithstanding the lunar change.

R. B. M. S. Lophoceros has been relieved by the Monarch at Fochow. The Lophoceros left for Shanghai on the 20th ult., and says the Monarch "carries with her the best wishes of the foreign community at this port. Captain Scott and his gallant officers gained great esteem during their brief term of service on this station, and the ball given on board their vessel last month will be long remembered in connection with their sojourn amongst us."

Norris the admission of Mr. Robert Hart to the Companionship of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, the Foehoo Herald very fairly says:—

"No one, more especially those who have watched his eminently successful career in this country, will grudge the 'I.G.' this new honour. But it is very difficult to understand the action of the home authorities in the matter. Mr. Hart is unquestionably an able man and a clever administrator. But what services has he rendered to the British Government during his tenure of office at Peking? During the negotiations at Chefoo, a few years ago, Mr. Hart was, it is certain, perfectly loyal to his virtuous employers; and we have the published testimony of Sir Thomas Wade to the effect that Mr. Hart's presence at the scene of the diplomatic conference was distasteful and embarrassing. There is high authority for the belief that a man cannot serve two masters. Mr. Hart has been thoroughly faithful to the Chinese Government, and is therefore entitled to the fullest recognition from the Dragon Throne; but we entirely fail to discover the soundness of his claims on the British fountain of honour."

CRICKET.

The match to-day between the Hongkong Cricket Club and the 27th Inniskillings resulted in favour of the former owing to the fine stand made by Dunman and Travers, 77 and 73 respectively. Charley bowled well for the Regiment.

During the afternoon the Band enlivened the proceedings by an agreeable selection of music.

We append the score:—
